

FYI - CALL FOR FAITH IN ACTION GRANT APPS

9/1/04

October 1st Deadline for $35,000 Health-Related Grants

What: The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Faith in Action Grants program, announces a call for proposals. These grant applications will be administered by the Wake Forest University School of Medicine.

Purpose: Funding will be made to support coalitions that ally religious congregations with other community organizations to provide volunteer care to individuals who are homebound due to long-term health problems.

Amount: Grants of $35,000 will be made to coalitions established by faith-based congregations, as well as by other volunteer organizations that demonstrate a commitment to a faith or denomination. Grants will also be given to establish new coalitions.

Who May Apply? Organizations that are classified as tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and not as private foundations under Section 509(a) of the code.

Application Dateline: October 1, 2004
